My Darling beloved,

Two letters to you in one day - I think I must be in love - gosh I am sweetheart, with the very dearest slowliest girl that ever was and - strangely enough - she's my wife. I really haven't much to tell you loved, but I just thought I'd like to say to you once more - I love you.

I finished off this morning's letter in something of a hurry, from then till tea time I worked, & worked & worked - on two stubborn engines that would not go. We had all sorts of fun & finished up at 5 o'clock with everything all set so will be able to push off home in the morning. I'll be very thankful to get there too!

The biggest hardship I find here is - no sheets & no pyjamas. I have thick blankets with a pair of underpants to ignore - very comfy & I do like to be comfy at night even if I'm hot & perspiring all day. I suppose it's quite in order though cos I'm not hot & perspiring all day now - it's been beautifully cool & very wet - quite a nice change but not very good for flying. Wilson of course doesn't fly in weather like that.

As I said sweetheart this is just to tell you I love you & to bid you goodnight - I don't think you've used to one page letters from me so I'll give you one for a change. I do love you so awfully much my precious, you're my very darling every hour dear girl - you are now & you always will be. Oh loved if I could only hold you to me & hug you tightly to me & tell you that I love you, I'd think I was in heaven. It would be heaven to me - perhaps you won't mind if I say it - might be for you too - what say you. Huggles to Judy Ann & I do hope she's well again. To my very loved wife again just every bit of my love. Darling heart I do adore you so far out at night
